

Reliance Services throws ‘Client Party’

Mary Kate Gobleck, president of Reliance Merchant Services, joined with two of her Main Street clients, Parker East Dry Goods and Olley Court March 25, to host a client appreciation party.

Refreshments were served and the retail stores stayed open late and offered discounts.

“The night was an opportunity to show all our local merchants how much we respect their business, especially with all the challenges that retail merchants are experiencing in this economy,” Ms. Gobleck said. “Reliance Merchant Services understands that tough times call for true client appreciation.”

Some of Reliance’s clients who attended were Michelle Maturo, Elevation Spin; Kathy Russell, Presence Studios; Jill Maguire, Fairfield County Bank; and Maureen Culhane, Barlow Mountain PTA.

Reliance Merchant Services provides credit card processing to all businesses, including nonprofits, seasonal accounts, and one-time events.

Party hosts were Susan Buzaid and Robin Curnan, co-owners of Olley Court, 418 Main St., and Katra Sowah, owner of Parker East Dry Goods, 420 Main St.
